Women's Center Honors Law Enforcement at Gala

DANBURY, February 22 – The Women's Center will be celebrating our partnership with local law enforcement at our annual Gala on Friday, April 7, 2017 at The Amber Room Colonnade in Danbury. The evening will begin at 6:00 with cocktails, and will include auctions, dinner and a performance by Steve Kazlauskas of "Echoes of Sinatra." The honorees for the evening will be the law enforcement agencies in the 13 towns that the Center serves; they will each receive a Founders Award in recognition of the critical work they do in partnership with the Women's Center.

The Women's Center provides free & confidential services that prevent or lessen the trauma associated with domestic violence, sexual assault and other major life transitions. Last year, the Center served more than 26,000 women, men and children in 13 area towns. All event proceeds will help to fund these FREE counseling, residential, prevention, and educational programs and services.

Please consider attending the event to celebrate the Women's Center and our successes in the past year. For more information on ticket purchases, donations, sponsorship, and advertising opportunities, please visit www.wcogd.org or contact Special Events Manager Kelly Parker, at (203) 731-5200 or kelly.p@wcogd.org.

The Women's Center of Greater Danbury provides free and confidential services to prevent or lessen the trauma associated with domestic violence, sexual assault and other major life transitions to thousands of women, children and men annually. The programs of the Women's Center are supported by state and local government, area United Way agencies and the people and businesses in the communities we serve including Bethel, Bridgewater, Brookfield, Danbury, Kent, New Fairfield, New Milford, Newtown, Redding, Ridgefield, Roxbury, Sherman, Warren, and Washington.
