“Projecto Tu” for Hispanic Girls at the Women’s Center

DANBURY, February 25 – This spring, the Women’s Center’s “Project Be” program is again offering fun, interactive and empowering “Girls Circle” support groups for Hispanic pre-teen and teen girls.

Session topics will include improving self-esteem, body image and the media, healthy relationships, and bullying. These groups have proven popular with participants and parents alike.

The free 8-week program begins on April 11th and meets weekly at the Center on Monday evenings through early June, from 5:30-7:00 p.m., in Suite #201 on the 2nd floor at 8 West Street in Danbury.

Space is limited and registration is required. For more information and to register, please contact our Bilingual Counselor/Advocate, Delta, at (203) 731-5200, ext. 207, or delta.v@wcogd.org.

The Women’s Center provides free and confidential services to prevent or lessen the trauma associated with domestic violence, sexual assault and other major life transitions to thousands of women, children and men annually. The programs of the Women’s Center are supported by state and local government, area United Way agencies and the people and businesses in the communities we serve including Bethel, Bridgewater, Brookfield, Danbury, Kent, New Fairfield, New Milford, Newtown, Redding, Ridgefield, Roxbury, Sherman, and Washington, CT.
